I. Qualitative Disclosures

A. Board Nomination and Remuneration Committee

The Board of Directors of Traditional Credit Union (the "Credit union") has established the Board Nomination and Remuneration Committee ("the Committee") to oversee the implementation of Remuneration Policy. The Remuneration Policy sets out Credit Union's objectives and policies in relation to remuneration arrangements, the structure of remuneration arrangements, who the Policy covers, and related matters.

The Committee comprises nine members, of whom a majority of independent directors. Each member of the Committee will be appointed for an initial term of three years, or shorter if circumstances dictate.

The main remuneration responsibilities of the Committee are to:

- Make annual recommendations to the Board, consistent with the Remuneration Policy, on the remuneration of the designated categories of persons covered by the Remuneration Policy as set out in the section 2 below;
- Conduct regular reviews of, and make recommendations to the Board on, the Remuneration Policy;
- Undertake such other functions in relation to the remuneration arrangements of the Credit Union as the Board may from time-to-time delegate to the Committee; and
- Ensure the Committee has the necessary experience and expertise to undertake its responsibilities, including where required by supplementing its expertise with appropriate external advice.

During the year ended 30 June 2017, the Remuneration Committee held two meetings.

B. Scope of Remuneration and Nomination Charter

The scope of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee Charter provides for the Committee to assess and make recommendations on the remuneration arrangements for the following categories of employees;

- the Chief Executive Officer (CEO);
- direct reports of the CEO, excludes the administrative direct reports
- risk and financial control personnel
- any other person whose activities may in the Committee's opinion affect the financial soundness of the Credit Union; and
- any person specified by APRA

During the year ended 30 June 2017, the Board has delegated to the CEO the responsibility for determining the remuneration arrangements for the Credit Union's employees.

C. Senior Managers & Material Risk-takers

(a) Responsible Persons

The following Traditional Credit Union employees are classified as 'Senior Managers' under Credit Union's Fit and Proper Policy:

- Chief Executive Officer;
- General Manager;
- Financial Controller;
- HR & Training Manager; and
- IT Manager;

All responsible persons listed above are senior managers of the Credit Union. Senior Managers' remuneration consists of fixed components comprising a base salary and superannuation benefits.

(b) Material Risk Takers

Material risk taker includes any employee whom a significant component of remuneration is based on performance.

During the year ended 30 June 2017, there were no Credit Union's employees who received or had the potential to receive a significant portion of their total remuneration in the form of variable or performance-linked payments.

Remuneration Policy

Objectives

The Remuneration Policy sets out the Credit Union's objectives and policies in relation to remuneration arrangements, the structure of remuneration arrangements, who the Policy covers, and related matters.

The main objectives of the Remuneration Policy are to"

- Attract and retain capable, motivated managers and staff; managers with strategic vision, able to drive growth while maintaining stability and financial soundness of institution;
- In relation to variable or performance-based components of remuneration, to encourage behaviour that supports TCU's long term financial soundness and risk management framework.
- Generally, to ensure TCU's remuneration arrangements are, and remain, compliant with corporate governance requirements, including requirements under CPS 510

Remuneration Arrangements

All directors of TCU are currently not remunerated for their services. The appropriateness of introducing fees for services will be reviewed during each year's budget setting cycle.

The Chief Executive Officer; Senior Managers; employees and directly retained contractors of TCU remuneration consists of fixed components comprising a base salary and superannuation benefits.

Implementation and Review

The Board, through the Committee, together with management of TCU, shall ensure the objectives and requirements of this Policy are implemented.

The Remuneration Policy was reviewed during the financial year and no changes were made.

II. Quantitative Disclosures

A. Decision Making Body

The Board of Directors is the main body responsible for overseeing remuneration matters in accordance with the Remuneration Policy.
