Target Market Determination

S1 – Everyday Transaction Account

1. Introduction

About this document

This Target Market Determination [TMD] is a document of Traditional Credit Union Limited (TCU) [we, us, our].

This TMD seeks to give our members, staff and other interested parties an understanding of the class of consumers for whom the product described has been designed, how the product is distributed, and related matters.

This TMD is not, and should not be construed as, a full summary of the product's Terms and Conditions. Nor is it a substitute for the provision of financial advice.

When deciding about the product, consumers should refer to the product's Terms and Conditions.

Effective date of this Target Market Determination

This TMD is effective from: 5 October 2021.

2. Class of consumers comprising the product's target market

Below we summarise the class of consumers comprising the target market for the product based on the product's key attributes and the consumer objectives, financial situations, and needs the product has been designed to meet.

Class of consumers

The product has been designed for consumers who reside in Remote Aboriginal communities and may include people who are looking for a fully featured everyday transaction account that provides convenient access to their funds.

Product description, key attributes, and eligibility criteria

The product is suitable as an everyday transaction account for personal customers that have financial capacity to perform transactions using the account and to pay account keeping fee and applicable transaction fees (as set out in the terms and conditions) as and when those amounts become payable and due.

The product's key attributes are:

- Visa Debit Card
- Cuecard
- BPAY
- Direct debit & direct credit
- In-branch use

- On-Line, mobile and telephone banking access
- Weekly account fee
- Interest paid monthly

There is no specific product eligibility criteria.

Objectives, financial situations, needs

The product has been designed for individuals who:

- Predominately use in-branch services
- Require funds at call
- Daily or High usage

Explanation

The consumers in the target market are largely welfare dependent, have low levels of financial literacy, low levels of digital literacy, low levels of formal education, struggle with understanding any language that is not the language spoken in the community and prefer face to face dealings with Indigenous people that are part of the local community.

3. Distribution of the product

Distribution channels

The product is designed to be distributed through the following means:

- in-branch
- call centre

Distribution conditions and restrictions

The distribution of the product is subject to the following conditions and restrictions:

- Only distributed through TCU
- ensuring that distribution through branches is by appropriately trained staff
- ensuring that retail clients meet the eligibility requirements for the product

4. Reporting by distributors of the product

We will monitor distribution of the product and collect the following distribution information reports:

Type of Information	Description	Reporting Period
